Local Man Kidnapped, Beaten by Assailant

Walter Hawes of 57 Maynard Street Is Victim of Attack in Medford — Ordered Out Of Own Car after Weird Ride To North Reading — Police

Walter Hawes, 38, of 57 Maynard st., East Arlington, was kidnapped and brutally assaulted late Wednesday night by "The Black Ace," the mysterious assailant and poison pen writer, who has been terrorizing law-enforcing officers, the Mayor of Everett, and several young persons in Greater Boston during the past two weeks.

The Arlington man is at the Lawrence Memorial hospital undergoing treatment for a possible fracture of the skull. First word of the incident reached Arlington early yesterday morning when Hawes called local police from North Reading, where he was forced out of his own car by the "Ace" and beaten up. Police of several cities have joined the search for the assailant of the local man.

The kidnapping took place after 10 o'clock Wednesday evening when Hawes, who was visiting Dr. J. F. Roberts, Main street Medford, left the residence of his host and prepared to drive home in his car which was parked outside.

On entering the car, he discovered a man in the back seat his hand in his pocket as though holding a revolver. Hawes was ordered to drive to Billerica. Hawes complied and turned the car around, headed for Medford square where he drove toward North Reading. The kidnapper, meanwhile, was carrying on a snappy monologue in which he boasted of his identity as "The Black Ace" and made several incriminating statements about his career of crime, winding up by telling Hawes that the gun (Continued on page two)

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, February 11.

The Golden Text is: "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit: For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit do mind the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Romans 8: 1, 5, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "For Right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeness, mortality. Being is holiness, harmony, immortality (p. 492).

Charles B. Leathe Still Very Active On 90th Birthday

Although 90 years old last Sunday, Charles B. Leathe, of 374 Massachusetts avenue, still gets a big kick out of life. Mr. Leathe has been a printer for sixty-five years, retiring at the age of eighty-five when he still could do an honest day's work. He and Mrs. Leathe are also both very active.

Born in Woburn, Mr. Leathe later lived in Boston, Springfield and Bryantville, and in all these communities, he was employed on various newspapers. He came to Arlington fifteen years ago and hopes to live to be one hundred.

Today, he proudly shows theatre posters billing him as an acrobat, back in the seventies. He performed at the old Boston Theatre among other places. He has also quite a record as a bicycle rider. Since coming to Arlington, he once rode a bike to Woburn and back, and would still try it today but he's afraid to run into an automobile and hurt someone, he told this reporter with a twinkle in his eye. Mr. Leathe has a keen memory and rare sense of humor. He remembers seeing Presidents Grant, Hayes, Arthur, Wilson, Cleveland, Teddy Roosevelt, Coolidge and Hoover.

Right now, he's anxious to see spring come around so that he can enjoy his favorite pastime, go out on the Boston Common and listen to the "orators."

Mr. Leathe received many cards of congratulations on his birthday.

Local Man Beaten

he carried was the property of "a cop that I just killed."

When the driver reached a suitably darkened lane of the main road, he ordered Hawes to turn, and a short distance up the road, he struck the latter over the head with a blunt instrument and after beating him up with his fists, threw him out into a swampy section, took the wheel and drove off, but not before he had followed Hawes and hit him several more times. Dazed and in a semi-conscious condition, Hawes dragged himself to the roadway where he met two young fellows, Edward M. Kenrich, 30, of North Reading and William Pettigall, 39, also of North Reading. They took Hawes to the telephone office and there called the Andover barracks of the State Police, and also Dr. Land of North Reading, who gave him first aid treatment and ordered him to the hospital. Hawes stated he wanted to go to the Lawrence Memorial hospital, and was taken there by State Trooper Bernard Horan.

KIWANIS CLUB BRIEFS

Walker Daly, manager of the Social Security Board's office in Cambridge, was the guest speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Arlington Kiwanis club in Wyman's tavern. Mr. Daly described the principal features of the Social Security Act and answered many questions.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Grady Darling Peagan, A.M., Ph.D., Minister.
On Sunday morning, Feb. 11, the pastor's sermon topic will be "The Naturalness of the Supernatural." He was sure that such a consideration would give the realm of the supernatural its true and tonic meaning for our lives. Such a consideration is the purpose of the sermon. The full choir will sing.

Sunday School at noon. The Men's Class will have as guest speaker Wayne M. Shipman, principal of Belmont High school.

Juniors of C. E. at 4 p. m. Intermediates, 6 p. m. Seniors 6 p. m. Adophians 7 p. m. All young people of the various ages cordially invited. The College Group holds its monthly meeting this Sunday also at 7 p. m.

"I'm wise to several mighty important facts about milk. Take Whiting's Irradiated milk, for instance. Here's a milk that's carefully irradiated—to increase its Vitamin D content.

AND

"this Vitamin D puts to work more of the calcium and other minerals in this milk when we drink it. That means, of course, stronger bones and teeth."

THAT'S WHY

Garden Club Members Will See Own Gardens In Motion Pictures

Home Talent Day will be observed by the Arlington Garden Club next Wednesday. In addition to the review which Mrs. Walter Vaughn will give on "The World Was My Garden" by David Fairchild, world explorer, Mrs. Laurence Wessells will show colored moving pictures of several members' gardens, taken last summer. There will be a scavenger hunt, and a Valentine tea will be served.

As there is a time limit for the sale of Flower Show tickets by the club, reservation of tickets should be made with Miss Amy Winn at this meeting, or in the near future. Residents of Arlington, as well as club members, can obtain tickets at a reduced price by contacting Miss Winn.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Pounder of 269 Payson Road, Belmont, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel M. Pounder, to Joseph F. Flores, Jr., of 13 Palmer street.

Miss Pounder is a graduate of Belmont High and attended Chandler Secretarial School, and Mr. Flores is a graduate and former hockey star of Arlington High School. Their engagement was announced at a dance given by Mr. and Mrs. William F. Pounder in honor of their daughter.

Church of Our Saviour Mother's Club Meets

The bi-monthly meeting of St. Mary's Club for Young Mothers was held recently in the parish house of the Church of Our Saviour.

The group was organized in the fall of 1939 for social and educational purposes, and has met with a marked degree of success.

A very interesting and informative talk on, "The Reasons for Mothers' Clubs," was given by Mrs. Roy E. Coombs of Belmont. Mrs. Coombs was formerly president of the "Mothers' Club" at the Payson Park church and offered many valuable suggestions.

A social hour followed. Tea was served by Mrs. James Evans and Mrs. Charles Larden, assisted by hospitality chairman, Mrs. M. Payne.

A GREAT AMERICAN ANNIVERSARY

This week all America is celebrating the 30th anniversary of the establishment of the Boy Scout Movement in America. The Movement has its enthusiastic supporters everywhere. Indeed in its three decades nearly 9,000,000 Americans have been Scouts, Cubs and leaders. Today there are over 1,330,000 boys and men actively enrolled.

Now as never before, American adults are giving their time, energies and financial support to time-tested boys and girls organizations that help mold their children into types of citizens that will guarantee the continued existence of the United States along the pattern set by the nation's founders who gave America its democratic form of government and its precious heritage, the Constitution and its Bill of Rights.

Supplementing existing organizations such as the home, church and school, the Boy Scouts of America engages boys' leisure-time energies in outdoor life and activities of cultural and practical values which lead boys to become dependable men.

Every President of the United States since William Howard Taft has been an enthusiastic supporter of Scouting and every American who knows anything about Scouting's beneficial program acknowledges it as worthy of continued confidence and trust. To officers and Scouts of Sachem Council, our hearty congratulations.

GOOD SERVICE PAYS

"The modern small town business man has many problems, but if he keeps his feet on the ground and uses his head there is no reason why he should not hold his own with any and all competition," says the Chieftain, of Enterprise, Oregon. "He has the means at hand to give personalized service, sell good merchandise at fair prices and above all be a friend of his customers."

The fact is that the small town business man has demonstrated beyond argument his ability to do just that. Gone is the day when the intelligent independent merchant, for instance, spent most of his time beating his breast and demanding that his chain store competitors be hamstrung with every device of legislation and class taxation. The modern independent goes to work in the face of competition, exerts himself still more to please his trade—and the customers keep right on coming in. The small merchant, no less than the big one, has ideas and vision—and the small merchant has been responsible for many innovations which have helped build and hold business.

It is to the credit of the American business man that he has always adjusted himself to the changing times. But it is not surprising. The biggest businesses this country knows, and especially those in the food and merchandising field, have grown from little businesses. About the only capital most of their founders had at the beginning was intelligence, ideas, and a willingness to work. The public pays well those who serve it well. And service is the stepping stone of all progress.

PLAN SKATING PARTY

The Young Peoples' fellowship of the Park Avenue Congregational church will meet next Sunday at 7 p. m. Roy Smith, moderator and deacon of the church, will speak. The fellowship will have an ice skating party tomorrow evening. Members are to meet at the church at 8 p. m.

BREAKS ATTEMPTED

Two attempted breaks were discovered here yesterday morning, one at the apartment of Dr. Jones, 66 Pleasant street and the other at Mags's Station, 100 Summer street.

More than 163 colleges and universities have conducted Scouting courses for Boy Scout leaders.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Speaking before a large Republican rally at Bayfront Park in Miami this week Senator Robert A. Taft told Floridians and winter residents that the key to recovery is the encouragement of small business under a friendly rather than a hostile administration.

Tracing the New Deal attempts to solve economic problems through laws, regulations, new bureaucracies, and deficit spending, Senator Taft declared that the facts of continued unemployment and underconsumption are proof that the planned economy has failed.

When Leo Geary of 15 Lincoln street celebrated his 15th birthday on Tuesday evening, 15 of his classmates from Malden Catholic High school gathered at his home to help him celebrate the occasion. Leo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David P. Geary.

Arlington's Russell Curry, popular dance instructor of the Curry School of Dancing, has been applauded in several exhibitions of dancing in Boston in recent weeks. He recently appeared at the Gardenia Ball in the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Cushman club. Last Tuesday the Charlotte Cushman club gave a tea in honor of actress Helen Hayes. Mr. Curry was again invited to give an exhibition of the latest dance steps. Miss Hayes watched the local instructor with a great deal of interest, and in Mr. Curry's words "She proved to be a grand sport," when she accepted his invitation to do the "Chestnut Tree" with him.

It is quite evident from Paul Dwinell's review of the Arlington high school dramatic club's latest play, that the selection of this particular play for presentation by a high school cast was unfortunate. We have seen other plays by our high school dramatists and have been convinced that they can put on a grand performance—so the cast of "House Beautiful" shouldn't take it too much to heart. Judging from comments of others who saw Saturday night's play, we assume that our Mr. Dwinell may be right at that.

Of course the smart alecks in the audience who stamped their feet and passed wise cracks during the performance, didn't help matters any. They weren't even good enough actors to be up there behind the footlights.

When it comes to a fish story, we usually have to rely on a picture of the fish or a verbal description of the size of the fish caught. However when Herbert W. Bolser, of 119 Warren street caught a three and a half pound sand pickerel on Cape Cod last Sunday, he decided to take the fish along with him as actual proof. Mr. Bolser proudly displayed the pickerel this week.

Woman's Club Enjoys Interesting Musicales

On Thursday, February 1st, the Arlington Woman's Club held its regular meeting in Robbins Town Hall. This was opened with a business meeting. Mrs. Fred U. Wyman, president, presiding.

Mrs. Americo Chaves, chairman of the motion picture committee, spoke on the type of moving pictures we should have in the town, mentioning three in particular which were well worth seeing: "Young Mr. Lincoln", "Abraham Lincoln in Illinois", and "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington." Reference was also made to the bill which is now before the House regarding bloc billing of pictures.

After a brief intermission, Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the music committee, introduced four members of the Boston Symphony orchestra who presented a most interesting musicale: Norbert Laura, first violin; Einar Hansen, second violin; George Humphrey, viola; and Boaz Piller, cello.

Mr. Piller organized this quartette, and their skill and technique show the perfection which comes from long ensemble work. Their selections were especially well chosen for such an audience. Included on the program were numbers from Mozart, Handel, Haydn, Schubert, Beethoven, Grieg and other famous composers. After listening to such a concert, one realizes that good music is still enjoyed by a large number of people.

Following the musicale, tea was served under the direction of Mrs. Harold Wilson and her social committee.

The members of the Americanization classes were the guests for the afternoon.

CAMERA CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The next meeting of the Camera Club will be held in the Junior Library Hall on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

E. Gurney Larson will give an illustrated talk on photography from airplanes and T. Frank Hardley will demonstrate aerial photo pictures. Any one interested in photography is cordially invited.

was twenty five and one half inches long.

We were glad to see Charles F. McManus, well known furniture dealer, back on the job this week. Mr. McManus has been confined to his home on account of illness for the past several weeks.

The three day period, Thursday, through Saturday, February 15, 16, and 17, will witness a novel show at amateur hobbies in the Social Room of the Y. M. C. A. at City Square in Charlestown. The show will be open to the public without charge from 3:00 p. m. to 11:00 p. m. each of these days.

"Civil Liberties" will be the subject of the talk to be given by Rev. Donald G. Lothrop at the Arlington High School next Monday, at 8:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Arlington Women's Club. ## Calvary Choir Plans Valentine Concert

The Calvary Church Choir, under the direction of Carl S. Nelson, is presenting two musical evenings in the church vestry on February 13 and 14 under the theme of "A Valentine Concert". The regular choir will be augmented by guest soloists and the girls chorus. A children's choir will do several numbers. The highlight of the program will be "Portraits from an Old Album" featuring the love scene from four famous couples of history.

Gala Evening Planned For Unitarian Church

The Social Alliance and the Laymen's League of the Unitarian Church combine this evening in the entertainment of the First Parish members. At six-thirty the Social Alliance is hostesses at a parish supper. Mrs. Homer L. Davis and Mrs. Richard W. Bennett are co-chairmen.

Later in the evening the Laymen's League will present a concert by the Cutler School Parent-Teachers Association concert orchestra led by William Huston. "He Ain't Done Right By Nell" a thrilling melodrama is being given by the Laymen's League following the concert. Rev. John Nicol Mark is directing. An element of mystery surrounds this presentation as the identity of the members of the cast is still unannounced and interest in the production is rapidly mounting.

Brackett School PTA To Mark Founders' Day

The "Founders Day" program planned for the meeting of the Brackett P. T. A. the afternoon of Feb. 13, promises to be an inspiring one.

A highlight of the program will be a playlet "Grandma Lends A Hand". Not only has Brackett contributed to the cast, but has collaborated with fellow members of the Arlington Parent-Teacher Council, in writing the play.

Arlington Goes "Over The Top"

For the first time in three years Greater Boston's Community Fund won victory by oversubscribing its 1940 goal of $4,625,000. This means that Greater Boston goes down in history as raising the largest sum of its kind ever subscribed in one single campaign in the world. The drive closed Tuesday night.

It means that the more than 175 Fund Hospitals, health and social services will be enabled to continue their great humanitarian work for the people throughout the 650 square mile metropolitan area during the coming year. The fact that the Fund has passed the goal and even now is piling up an oversubscription means, moreover, that these hospitals and other agencies will be able to renew needed services curtailed for lack of funds.

Latest returns announced for Arlington showed a quota percentage of 127.6. Chairman Arthur P. Wyman has announced: Arlington was among the communities which oversubscribed their quota.

Mr. Wyman congratulated the people of Arlington and the hard-working volunteer organization for their support in helping toward the success of the Fund.

Campaign leaders feel that the increased response of the people living in the metropolitan area is significant of their greater understanding of the Community Fund endeavor and of the close tie which binds neighboring communities together inseparably.

Scout Camp's Drive, Success

Nothing succeeds like success! When the civic minded men and women of Arlington started out last summer to raise $10,000 through a bond issue secured by a deed of trust executed by the Arlington Girl Scout Corporation and running to the Menotomy Trust Company as trustee for the bond holders, many were the discouraging suggestions made by the Doubting Thomases.

That, it was said, was a huge sum of money to raise in Arlington, or attention was called to the fact that the Community Chest was having a terrible struggle to raise its budget. But despite the fact that the bond issue was held up at the request of the Community Chest until after the chest drive was over, and despite the fact that the bonds were not issued until January first, the issue went over with surprising rapidity.

Of course, the issue presented a good investment. The security offered was worth well over one hundred percent of the issue, the interest rate of four percent was good in today's market, and the names of the several women who are behind the movement coupled with a sound businesslike plan for amortization made the sale a comparatively easy project. But above and beyond the factors just enumerated, the demonstrated success of the Camp's first season reduced sales resistance to a nullity.

Arlington may well point with pride to Camp Menotomy for in this project it has easily the best situated, best run, and best equipped Girl Scout Camp in New England. In fact there are very few private camps for girls that can demonstrate superiority in any department over the Arlington venture.

During the first season the Camp ran at nearly capacity load for the whole period, and ran at or over capacity during two of its periods. With all of the vicissitudes of a fair season the camp showed a very substantial profit and gave a delightful and beautiful period of recreation to one hundred seventy girls from far and near.

D. Herbert Puttrick, acting as chairman for the men's committee handling the raising of the money for capital outlay, did an exceptionally fine job at selling the bond issue for he alone sold about half of the issue. The Girl Scout Council members cooperated wonderfully and sold a good third of the issue.

This accomplishment on the part of those interested in Girl Scouting should lend encouragement to others desiring to raise funds for capital investment for it demonstrates conclusively that a worthy cause well handled will produce the funds.

Finds Day In Hospital, "Not Bad"

(Editor's Note: "If You're Generally Okay, a Day in the Hospital is Really a Pleasant Surprise." The title given by the Boston Sunday Post to an interesting feature article appearing recently in its columns about the observations of a well-known Boston advertising man who had been confined to the hospital for two months. When his strength permitted, Mr. Curtis jotted down his observations which formed the basis of the feature story published in the Sunday Post. The article, reprinted by permission of the Boston Sunday Post, follows in part.)

By a Patient, Patient

I had just stepped up to the teller's window of a bank where an average deposit of $500 is maintained, and handed in a check for $25,000, left by a rich uncle whom I never heard of . . . and I woke up . . . woke up to see the pretty little face of the Belle of Medford.

In her hand, a thermometer, which of course soon cut off further speech. Then she grabbed me by the wrist—and did my pulse beat! I'll say! Did I wake up? Who wouldn't under the circumstances?

With the facts ascertained, a recumbent position was in order—for the influence of the sleeping pill, one took the night before, hangs on.

To digress: the only trouble with me is a weak heart and definite anemia. That's all that's ailing me; nothing else. That, in part, may account for this narrative.

Anyway, The Day in a Hospital goes on, for Miss America of St. Johnsbury appears with the wash basin, teeth cleaning implements, etc. About that time the sleeping pill makes one more drowsy than ever, so you ask her to wash your face and hands instead of doing the job yourself, as you are perfectly able to do. What fakers men are!

In the meantime, the Queen of Damariscotta pokes her head in the door and leaves the day's fresh bed linen—all in a good cause.

Then there's another rest period, intentional or otherwise, I have never been able to find out, as you wait for your breakfast. At least it comes to your stomach's aid through the agency of the ward aide. A look at the tray and you wonder whether she brought your breakfast—or a medicine chest—for at least three medicines decorated my tray at every meal. But it's all for one's good, so the assortment is assimilated.

Hamlet Was Right

Then another rest period as one awaits the great event of the day . . . The morning bath! And do they feel good? Well, I liked them, and the Sweetheart of the Cape who ministered to my needs so well; she heard some pretty flimsy excuses to get in a back rub or two in the wee small hours.

Nevertheless the bath's the thing, Hamlet was right. "Ah! There's the rub." A recumbent position is assumed whether you like it or not. A grayish blanket is spread over you by the Sunshine of Beverly and when I say, Sunshine I mean it for her smile will put Old Sol in an eclipse anytime. You hear her cautionary words, "Hold tight!" I never could find out why, and lo and behold, the entire night's bed clothing disappears over the lower bed posts.

I lay between the blankets wondering what next. Hot water, a large basin, and a small cake of soap—guest size I guess, being a guest—appears on the scene. Just as I was about to get a call elsewhere, (Possibly to one more seriously sick than I.) Time marches on! Marches on! You begin to think yourself in the obituary ward. All you need to carry out the illusion is a glass cover, and kind relatives saying, "Isn't he cute!" Five years from now these same relatives will be saying, "What a disagreeable brute!"

Grand and Glorious

But Sunshine returns and the bath is on. Your manly chest is bared, washed, wiped; the right leg gets what's coming to it, then the right foot goes into the basin, kerplunk, and being dried off, Sunshine endeavors to find out whether you are ticklish or not, around the toes.

In my case, "No." So the bath goes on. Then the last leg goes through the same enervating process. Now the big event of all, especially if you weigh close to 200, one's back is washed and ironed in approved style, alcohol is applied and every vertebrae accounted for and rubbed. Boy! What a grand and glorious feeling!

Then, like the grand opera, comes the intermission.

Friend nurse remembers she has two dates for tonight and has to telephone so the two boy friends will not meet, and add to the list of patients in the hospital. Finally the "Johnnie," an institutional garment, of itself takes its accustomed place rumpled up in the small of your back. (A "Johnnie," as the initiated know, is a short shirt—abnormally short—with a southern exposure.) Then they take your blood pressure . . . and wonder!!!

Finally, relaxed; a rest period in sight, and in comes good old Doc Phil and the Empress of Buffalo, she who has supervision over the Ladies in Waiting. Speaking of the Empress, she is tactful and considerate, observant and insistent in every little thing that will make for the comfort of a patient patient and his domain. She lords it over her domain with the good will and respect of her Ladies in Waiting, and deservedly earning the gratitude of her patients.

And what pays they all are. Anyone who is sick, and doesn't go to a hospital and enjoy their "loving" treatment is overlooking a bet.

The Doc Explores

But back to Doc. After a salute, sitting on your bedside in a most approved bedside manner, he probes to see if one's liver, portions of the innards are where he left them yesterday. After my breathing against pressure, he finds they are. Then, out comes the ear phones and sounding disc. What depths have been reached with the sounding apparatus one will never know.

With further soundings, a few taps on the back, he reaches for my feet. With a smile of satisfaction, he says, "The swelling is definitely gone down." (He never examined my head), and concludes, "I'm afraid you are better!" Which sounds good to me. Out the door he goes with the comment, "I'll be suing you!" Perhaps he will, who knows?

Then comes the real rest period. One is privileged to listen to two caulkers shoring up bricks outside the window. Of course sleep means nothing to them, so the suggestion was offered to treasurer's department that they pay me for eight hours that these fellows worked instead of paying them anything. No noticeable progress was made in that direction. Then the ward aide, the little Dream in Green, appears on the scene with dust pan and cloth, mop and broom. She proceeds to move the kitties which had a conversation yesterday in one corner of the room to another corner, run the mop and dust pan over them and depart.

Hearts and Flowers

Then comes the flowers and cards to grace my table. One thing you learn, as Doc Phil says, "You find out who among your friends are really acquaintances." The thermometer and pulse not having taken well at 7, come 11, the process is repeated. But who could mind holding hands with the happy little Dorchester Belle?

About that time a sight to behold becomes a reality. Bundled in all the blankets in hospital cold storage, with a monk's hood drawn tightly over the head so the only doctor who could possibly operate would be one specializing in eye, nose, ear and throat—a chrysanthemum decorates a plummet—bed and all are wheeled to the sun porch. Shortly appears the Belle of Fall River. Adding even more to her natural attractiveness is the fact that in her hand she has a glass of stout, my appetizer. Not ban at all!

Then friend wife shows up to hold my hand for a change. You get all the neighborhood gossip. It's funny how little stock the chart takes in pulse and temperature for about that time appears the Pride of Methuen, a deputy among the ladies, in waiting. One look and you have not the slightest objection to the operation.

But speaking of pulse taking, inquiry was made asking what discount was made on the chart where the pulse was taken by a pretty nurse holding one's hand. "None," was the answer. A bit strange, don't you think?

Supper passes into one's tummy; then you find an excuse for another back rub. A bit later the Belle of Southbridge appears with a tray of drinks. You notice nothing more stimulating than water, milk, or orange juice. You think of the buffet at home, and say, "Make mine with water, please!"

This is a sample day, showing one's time is occupied.

Other Days Than Sample

Other days include going without your breakfast that you may drink a concoction named barium, then be conveyed to the X-ray room and photographed fore and aft—stem to stem. Another calls for the stomach test. Tubes find their way through the nose and throat, and the pump goes to work trying to find hydrochloric acid in the stomach when one can buy all he wants at any drug store.

I was under the impression I was there to get more and better blood, not to give it—but another day a young chap in a white uniform comes in and taps my arm for blood in two or three jabs with a reverse hypodermic, and since that's not enough of a contribution to the cause, a fair damsel comes and pricks my ear drawing further blood. Oh, I'm full of it. Such as it is. And there are other tests too, to make you remember other days. But it's all in a good cause as I've said before. That the leg stick should make a hospital the first retreat. For they'll get what's coming to them—my word for it.

An hour or two with visitors, and tucking in period arrives with another back rub. Then with a luminal pill you roll over, but lo and behold, the chap in the next bed attended the sale of Fall River steamers, and purchased one of the fog horns. But after passing Point Judith it mattered not and I returned to the teller's window at the bank, and started to draw on my $25,000.

Such is a day in the hospital! Not bad, eh.

Royals After 7th Victory

The Arlington Royals pulverized the Newton City Club's defense Saturday evening to score a well-earned 29-30 verdict. The Newton club had a record of twelve victories against no defeats until the Arlington quintet so rudely trod on them. It was the sixth consecutive win for the inspired locals, who are playing truly blinding basketball. Possessing a tricky passing attack and displaying uncanny accuracy in sinking their shots, the Royals were never in danger.

The speed of "Twink" Glennon and Charlie Lowder kept the Blue and Gold in its front court most of the evening, while the magnificent defensive play of John Cashman and Bill Whitney carried the locals over the rough spots. Lowder collected fourteen points and the honor of being high scorer for the evening.

Saturday, the Royals meet the highly publicized Brookline All-Stars, who come to the High School Gymnasium with the enviable record of twenty six wins out of twenty eight games played. The local boys, however, are confident of supplying the All-Stars with plenty of trouble, and it would appear to your reporter, that the Brookline boys will have to travel far to protect their record. The Royals-Brookline game will start at 8.15 p. m. at the High School Gym.

At 7.30 p. m. The Royals Junior Varsity will take the floor against Framingham Collegians. The Jay Vees, paced by the Busa Brothers, Lexington stars, are after their tenth win. They have suffered but one defeat during the current season. The Framingham lads, a really powerful club, are favored slightly to take the game, but the young Royals will give them all the competition they need.

Arlington Loses One But Defeats Rindge In Basketball Game

By BILL DALE
Newton High's crack quintet swept to their ninth straight victory and the suburban league championship with a 38-39 victory over Arlington at the Newton gym Friday evening.

It was a hard fought game all the way with the decision in doubt right up to the final whistle. Arlington took the lead at the outset as Captain Glennon sank four beautiful field goals from well out on the floor. Newton rallied midway the second period flashing a near perfect passing attack to collect five baskets. Glennon and Cotter each sank baskets to go into a commanding lead 21-16 as the half ended. Newton clicked in the third period, with Johnny Flagg as their spear head, scoring thirteen points to Arlington's three. Arlington came back on two baskets and a foul shot to make the score 32-25 but Olivaint dropped in two loopers to clinch the decision. Arlington had a great superiority around the backboard in the first half, but lost it in the second. Newton sank eight valuable foul shots which proved the margin of victory. Captain Glennon and Tom Cotter earned their title of the scoring twins by garnering 29 of the 30 points scored by Arlington.

Arlington Tops Rindge
In one of the closest games of the entire basketball season the Arlington basketball five rolled over Rindge Technical Institute 32-30. The victory placed Arlington in a tie for second place in the Suburban League with two games remaining on the schedule. Both teams scored the same amount of points in both halves. Arlington collecting 16 and Rindge 15. The game was one of the roughest witnessed this season as Rindge scored 12 fouls and Arlington made good 16.

Local Men Elected By Hood Benefit Ass'n.

Seward E. Nichols of 63 Eustis street was installed recently as vice president of the Mutual Benefit Association of H. P. Hood and Sons. He assumed his duties this week. George G. Walker of 23 Lennox road and Hugh F. Trainor of 19 Rhinecliff street assumed their duties as members of the governing board of the association. Mr. Walker is employed in the Medford plant and Mr. Trainor in the Charlestown plant. They were elected by their associates as representatives and were installed in office at a meeting in Boston.

With other representatives from 31 plants of the Hood company they have the responsibility for the proper disbursement of more than $50,000 a year, principally as disability or death payments to members of the association and their families. The bylaws of the association provide for death payments of $1000 or $2000, depending on the class of membership. Last year $2000 benefits were paid on 14 deaths and $1000 on one death.

Through an arrangement with the company a disability plan has been developed under which any member of the association is entitled to draw salary, up to $50 a week, for a full year, if incapacitated from work. The size of this guaranteed payment depends on the length of time of employment by the company.

Another feature of the association program is that bank accounts of $50 are started for each baby born to a member of the association. This is made possible through the cooperation of the Charles H. Hood Trust fund. The record for 1939 was 139 babies. This is almost double the average birth rate in Massachusetts.

The Mutual Benefit Association is one of the oldest and strongest organizations of its kind in the country. It was organized in 1903 with 16 members and now has more than 2700. It operates in about 20 areas outside of Greater Boston.

YOU CAN WIN $10,000.00!
A total of $15,000.00 IN CASH PRIZES will be paid to readers of the Boston Daily Record and Boston Evening American. See these papers today for complete details of a sensational new contest!

MOVIES FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Martin K. Bovey, adventurer, who will show his color movies to Arlington Woman's Club.

A rare treat is in store for the members of the Arlington Woman's Club when Martin K. Bovey will show color motion pictures, "Timber Line" at next Thursday afternoon's meeting in Robb's Town Hall. The motion picture committee will be in charge.

Martin Bovey started making pack train trips in the beautiful Rocky Mountains of Alberta when he was a very young boy. On one of these trips Bovey killed a mountain sheep that stands high among the record heads. All of these trips were made with F. H. Riggall of Twin Butte, Alberta, an extremely intelligent Englishman who knows the flora and fauna and geology of the Canadian Rockies as do very few men. A trip with Riggall is a veritable education.

Martin Bovey's latest trip to the Alberta Mountains was made in late June and early July of 1939.

Finds "House Beautiful" Too Difficult Play for High School Cast

"The House Beautiful," by Channing Pollock. Presented by High School Dramatic Club at Town Hall, Feb. 3. Directed by Helen F. Mathews and Claire H. Johnston. The cast was as follows:
"Guy Station" Richard Schober
"Elbert Baxter" Terry Shuman
"Archibald Davis" Stephen Keefe
"George Harrender" Catherine Iaconis
"Jennifer Davis" Barbara Thurston
"Hulda" Anita LeBlanc
"Nina Baxter" Jean Mark
"Dr. Brink" Eugene Deane
"Sam Dreyer" Thomas Johnston
"Martha Wiley" Julia Iacona
"Kathleen O'Brien" Kathleen O'Brien
"Richard Davis" aged 10 John Highland
"Charles Robinson" Charles Robinson
"Richard Davis," adult Wilmer Hayes
"Vivian Baxter" Robert Strong
"Barbara Birch" Barbara Birch
"Faye Williams" Faye Williams
Trumpeter Robert Dolham
Understudies:
By Paul A. Dwinell

It is a ticklish and unpleasant task to review a play and condemn several months' hard and earnest work by students and teachers. The Dramatic Club is to be commended for ambition and a spirit of progress, but the selection of a play as colorless as "House Beautiful" for an audience of pleasure-bent classmates appeared unwise. The production is unfair to the play, to the players, and to the auditors.

High School students are performers and entertainers, not actors. They have seemingly limitless energy (for outside activities anyway) so why put them in a play that bottles up all the vitality and spontaneity that is their charm?

It is to the credit of the cast that they under-played rather than over-played, but restraint which lacks intensity becomes squeamish after awhile and the audience, just naturally looking for comic relief. If the play doesn't have it, they will find it in the production.

Despite trumpets and spiritualism, Mr. Pollock's play can too easily become "The Old Homestead" in a dress suit. The melodramatic framework is there—subtleties, mortgages, a thoroughly hissing villain and an ultimate triumph of virtue. Under immature players, the poetic and emotional coating crumbles and the bare framework is not an inspired piece of theatrical architecture.

Catherine Iaconis played Jenn with simplicity and intelligence. She aged gracefully, but where, in heaven's name, did that wig come from? It put the Fuzzy-Wuzzies to shame!

Jean Mark was an elegant Nina. Her poise and stage manner were something beautiful to watch. The vehement scene in which she confessed her misery of soul was the finest moment of the play.

In the future, let hope the club plays something within its grasp. How about "The Bat"?

Fashion News

By Edith Hine
This is the time of year when we start to think about remodeling some of the old duds, and fooling ourselves and our friends. Some of the suggestions given this year include, as well as the perennial favorite of crisp white neckwear, belts which include a trio of narrow leather ones in three colors on daytime dresses. Some straight dinner gowns have contrasting ribbon belts as wide as a Japanese obi.

Lightweight, black woolen dresses have wide corset insets of plaid or light colored silk. Plaid silk taffetas are fashion news in the silk market at present. Exclusive dress houses are using them in considerable quantity for dress trims, millinery and accessories for street and afternoon wear, and last but not least, in distinctive afternoon and evening gowns. The bigger the plaid, and the more daring its coloring the more "high style" it is.

Looking Inside

(Ed's Note: The comments in this column are not to be considered as the editorial opinions of the NEWS.)

Feb. 7, 1940. In writing about the Town Debt last week I forgot to mention — so it was called to my attention — that we paid off a $40,000 bond issue for hurricane damage done in 1938. That is right but that is not regular Town Debt. I also did not mention that we paid another $10,000 for the Middlesex Co. Hospital original construction debt which was authorized in 1932. This annual amount will continue till 1942 or 43.

P. S. I am informed that the very troublesome piece of construction along Mill Brook near the Schwamb plant is now being solved. It entails the moving of the Metropolitan trunk sewer and a fancy concrete culvert to sweep the water around by and between the buildings. It will require no shoring of buildings or other dangerous work and is the result of study by our Engineering Department. They even made a scale model of the culvert with running water, and everything before plans were completed. Best of all, it will cost only a fraction of the $12,000 asked in 1938 to do the job. W. P. A. are doing the work.

C. OF C. HONORS FIVE WHO SERVED TOWN MANY YEARS

Five prominent citizens who have given the Town many years of faithful service were honored by the Arlington Chamber of Commerce at its meeting in the Arlington Gas Light company Tuesday evening. Honored were: Mrs. Roger W. Homer, Alfred W. Lombard, Dr. Charles F. Atwood, Clarence A. Moore and Mrs. R. coe Perry.

The meeting opened with a catered dinner followed by a brief business meeting at which President Wathen B. Henderson presided. New members accepted into membership were William P. Nelson, manager of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company; Kathryn Tracy Callahan, of the Shop Unique; Sam Allison, of the Shoe store; and Atty. Harold D. Magnus, of Jason street.

Malcolm Griffin reported for the committee in charge of parking facilities and said that the possibility of using part of the Russell school playground for auto parking was somewhat remote since it would be necessary first to go to the State legislature for permission.

He announced a special meeting for next Wednesday evening to consider further ways and means to welcome newcomers to Arlington.

Frank Lansing presented a lengthy and most thorough report on ways of improving bus transportation locally.

Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the local Finnish Relief committee was called upon to explain what was being done in Arlington to raise funds for war-torn Finland. He stated that the local committee was affiliated with the Herbert Hoover Finnish Relief Fund program and that two meetings of local organizations had already been held, at which time plans were made for a benefit concert and entertainment to be held in the Robbins town hall, February 22.

He said the local Finnish relief committee is non-political and is in no sense to be used for any other purpose than to relieve suffering in Finland. He said the committee hoped to raise $2,000 in Arlington through the sale of tickets for the concert. These tickets are available at the Arlington News office, 793 Massachusetts avenue, and from members of the committee. He also announced that the support of patrons and patronesses would be enlisted. Local organizations are giving the local program hearty support, he added.

The meeting was next turned over to Earl A. Ryder.

Tribute to Lombard

The first guest honored was Alfred W. Lombard, who is retiring from the board of health after 30 years' service. The speaker was William Bradley, former agent of the board. Mr. Bradley said, in part: "I served under Mr. Lombard for some 20 years. During this time he introduced many new features and I don't believe there is any man in the United States who knows as much about board of health problems as Mr. Lombard. He was always business-like in his dealings, prompt in his appointments, an able executive and a wise counselor. With the retirement of Mr. Lombard, Arlington loses one of the most faithful, conscientious public servants ever on a town board."

Mrs. Lombard who was present with Mr. Lombard, was then presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Dr. Charles F. Atwood, who retired from the same board last year was the next to receive well earned praise. In this case, Charles M. Sawyer paid tribute. Mr. Sawyer referred to Dr. Atwood as an active, able and efficient worker—one who does not care for public appearances. He then reviewed at length, Dr. Atwood's lengthy record of public service. Mrs. Atwood was also presented a bouquet of flowers.

At this point, Mr. Ryder took occasion to speak of the record of public service by Mrs. Semira Perry, whom the Chamber had hoped to have at the meeting. He referred to her tireless effort as head of the Welfare Council for many years.

The next to be honored was Clarence A. Moore, member of the board of assessors until February, when he resigned because of ill health. Mr. Moore was unable to be present, but Mr. Ryder announced that the former assessor was recovering in health, gradually. Mr. Ryder paid glowing tribute to the former town official, a native of Arlington, and life-long resident of this town. After reviewing Mr. Moore's record, he said, "No other official has ever given more complete service." He referred to Mr. Moore as a real, true Christian, a man who made no concession to main applause. It was voted that Mr. Ryder's tribute be placed on the records, and a copy sent to Mr. Moore. Flowers were also presented to the latter's wife at her home at the close of Tuesday night's meeting.

The next speaker, Arthur W. Gilnes paid tribute to the 25 year record of Mrs. Roger W. Homer as head of the Arlington Visiting Nursing association. Mrs. Homer retired from that office recently.

Mr. Gilnes said, in part, "When one gives her time and work to a cause, for no financial reward nor for fame, we find an example of service which is not puffed up. Mrs. Homer sacrificed in more ways than one to carry out service. May we benefit by her example." Mrs. Homer was presented a bouquet of flowers.

"Ideal for Service"

Mr. Ryder next called upon Arthur J. Mansfield, publisher of the NEWS as the final speaker.

He said, in part: "The men and women, honored this evening, have caught the ideal of service. If we can catch that ideal, we will have gone a great way along the road to a better civilization. Great institutions in this country have been started by one man or one woman who had some ideal. The result has been the development of this great country and of individualism."

He classed the honored guests with the masters, the one man or one woman in a hundred who does the right thing at the right time, amid a society often rocked by the whims of people who are not matured. Mr. Mansfield praised the honor guests for their faithful work without seeking reward.

Representing the town government, Selectman William C. Adams extended the town's appreciation for work well-done by the honored guests, whom, he said, had found a warm place in the hearts of the townspeople.

Mr. Ryder closed the meeting, wishing the honored guests, joy, happiness and health in the years to come.

Miss Phyllis Bell Is Given Bridal Shower

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Miss Ruth Erison when a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of her cousin, Phyllis Claire Bell, who is to become the bride of Albert Nicholson of Bathurst, New Brunswick, in June. Miss Bell is from Halifax, Nova Scotia, and is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Ashley Loomer, of Belmont.

Several vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Ruth Olive, well-known Arlington soprano, and Miss Jessie Farley of Providence, Rhode Island, entertained with tap-dancing.

A huge, trimmed umbrella, filled with many beautiful and useful gifts, hung from the center of the living-room ceiling; the gifts were presented to the bride-to-be by little Miss Mary Jean MacLean of Somerville.

After the opening of the gifts, dainty refreshments were served in the beautifully decorated dining-room. Mrs. J. Wallace MacLean of Somerville and Miss Viola Base of Arlington poured.

Arlington Zonta Club Guest Of Visiting Group

Arlington Zonta Club had as guests members of the Zonta Club of Somerville at the Old House, Lexington, last Thursday evening.

Dinner was served from tables bright with valentine favors, red carnations and lighted candles. The seating of the 35 members and guests was well planned and promoted sociability and friendliness.

After dinner a very unique entertainment was given by Miss Carolyn French, who played the accordion, and Dr. Guy Sweeney of Medford, who created much laughter by his program of character sketches in costume.

The only item of business transacted was the vote to change the next evening meeting from the regular date, Feb. 22, to Thursday, Feb. 29.

The president, Mrs. Lucinda Spofford then presented Miss Nora Brown, who had charge of all the arrangements which afforded those present an especially enjoyable evening.

A total of 27,232 Boy Scouts represented 536 Councils at the National Jamboree held in Washington, D. C., in 1937.

Townsend Club No. 1

A very inspiring meeting of Townsend Club number one was held Tuesday evening at Legion Hall, John Weir, State Representative gave a very new explanation of the new Townsend bill which has been presented to Congress. This was followed by a question period. In the future Mr. Weir followed the meeting at which he will give another address on the features of the bill. A social period refreshments were served. A home cooked supper will be served at the next meeting, Feb. 20. The council meets at Mrs. John Heron's, Friday evening.

—Miss Grace Allen of Dorchester was tendered a shower by a large group of friends and office associates a recent evening at the home of Miss Rita Keefe, 128 Washington street. Miss Allen, who will be married in February, received many gifts.

Boys' Club In Decisive Win

The decisive win of the Boys' Club quintet over the Mohawk club, to the tune of 35 to 19, at the Junior High East dumped the Indians out of the triple tie for the first place in the Arlington Basketball League sponsored by the local Adult Recreation project, under the supervision of Leonard Collins.

The standing this week shows the Boys Club and the Forest A. C. dividing top honors with four wins each. The Mohawks dropped to second place and close in their heels are the Arlington Pals, last year's champs, with three wins and one loss.

Billy Meadows' Olympics showing a lot of improvement, evened up their count with two wins and two losses, and gave promise of causing plenty of trouble for the leaders.

The B. C. Club, after three straight losses, have strengthened their club by the addition of Fannie Keefe, John Driscoll and J. P. Donahue. All three played together on the Arlington High School team of 1928 which brought the Tech Tournament Trophy to Arlington.

The standing this week:

	L	W	PER
Forest A. C.	4	0	1000
Boys' Club	4	0	1000
Mohawks	4	1	800
Arl. Pals	4	1	750
Olympics	2	2	500
Invaders	1	3	250
Eagles	1	4	250
B. C. Club	0	3	900
Rangers	0	5	900

Next week's schedule follows:

Monday, Feb. 12
Invaders vs B. C. Club—East.
Mohawks vs Rangers—West.

Tuesday, Feb. 13
Eagles vs Boys' Club—East (1st game).

Pals vs Olympics—East (2nd game).

B. C. Club vs Forest A. C.—West.

Wednesday, Feb. 14
Eagles vs Rangers—East (1st game).

Pals vs Forest A. C.—East (2nd game).

Thursday, Feb. 15
Forest A. C. vs Boys' Club—High School (1st game).

B. C. Club vs Olympics—High School (2nd game).

OFF THE BACKBOARDS

The Purple Invaders, despite the loss of Whitney and Cotter of last year's team, are playing good basketball. The scare they gave the strong Mohawk team last Wednesday night at the West had the Mohawks very jittery for a while. "Obie" O'Brien of the Invaders topped the scoring for his team with nine baskets for a total of 18 points.

Billy Whitney of last year's High School team has picked up right where he left off. Billy, one of the shining lights of the Forest A. C. has been a big factor in keeping his team at the top of the league.

Joe McCarthy, Eagle forward went to town Thursday night at the High School. Joe scored almost half of his team's point in their surprise win over the more experienced B. C. team.

The Eagles were without the services of their rangy forward John Sullivan. A sprained ankle put John on the sidelines where he directed the play of his team.

Tommie Cotter is playing a dual role. He has been serving as coach of the Purple Invaders and playing forward for the Boys' Club. On second thought he is playing a triple role, he also plays for Bill Lowder's High School team.

How about it Tommie when the Boys' Club plays the Purple Invaders, player or coach?

Louie Cartullo, of the Heights Cartullos, refuses to listen to the pleas of his team mates on the Forest A. C. to don his "tights" for basketball. Says Louie, "I'm all alone, I'm heading for the last 'washup' in the showers, until the football season rolls around."

Locke School PTA Meets

Mrs. Malcolm B. Griffin presided at the January meeting of the Locke School PTA, held in the school hall recently.

Mrs. Frank Lincoln announced plans for the Founders' Day program, February 8 at 3 p. m. Mr. Hoey gave a club report.

A Leap Year party will be held February 29 in the school hall.

The speaker at the recent meeting was Mrs. Ralph H. Palmer who spoke on "Youthful Reading and Radio Programs". She compared colonial day activities and the life of today, stressing the importance of that radio plays in children's lives today.

Miss Evelyn Cornet, soprano soloist, sang several selections, accompanied by Miss Helen Gale.

The fourth grade mothers provided refreshments, served by the hospitality committee.

Contributions are still being received by the committee for the memorial to Miss Myrtle Davis, it was announced at the meeting.

Miss Esther Bailey Reveals How Town Was Named "Arlington"

With full appreciation of Town Treasurer Charles A. Hardy's excellent "Thumb-nail" sketch of Arlington featured on the Jordan Marsh's "Parade of Cities" broadcast, it may be of interest to add that the name Arlington was selected in 1867 by a committee of nine.

Many of the old West Cambridge families had opposed any change of name. Rev. Samuel A. Smith of the First Parish church, although a newcomer, had said in a public address on April 19, 1864, not long before his death:

"I hope the name of the Town will never be changed. It would be like giving up our birthright."

Charles S. Parker in his "Arlington, Past and Present," states: "Had Mr. Smith lived, the result of the move to change the name might have been different, for he was a wise and powerful leader of men."

Joseph S. Potter, chairman of the committee to choose a new name, returned from Washington, where he had served this Congressional district in the House of Representatives, full of enthusiasm over the new National cemetery at Arlington, Virginia. That nationally honored and euphonious name was his choice and his wish prevailed in the committee, and in the town meeting. The "die hard" who had opposed any change received little attention in a suggestion to return to the old Indian name, Menotomy, which was both distinctive and unlikely to be duplicated.

These are listed in the United States today, 22 towns named Arlington, in 31 States. Ohio has two. Arlington, Virginia, was probably named for the English Earl of Arlington of the 17th century.

(Signed) Esther Bailey.

Arlington Tops Belmont 5 to 2

By Richard Rowe

Lead by Capt. Bob Sanders, the Gray-Ghosts of Arlington High got back into the win column last Saturday afternoon at the Garden when they drubbed Belmont, 5-2.

Bob Sanders, boosted himself into a tie for third in individual scoring with Russ Priestly of Melrose. Sanders scored the first goal of the game in the first period when he accepted a perfect pass from Arty Blanchard and beat Goalie Boudny with a high sailing shot.

In the second period Eddie Burns dented the strings on another Blanchard pass, and within 3 m. later, Dan Moore, Arlington's stylish center, scored a beautiful goal on a pass from his wing, Art Rico. Bill Brown of Belmont scored his team's first goal just before the bell rang ending the second period.

Arty Blanchard scored his first goal of the afternoon when he took a Bob Sanders pass and beat Boudny with a bullet-like shot from 15 ft. out. John Sullivan put Belmont back into the scoring column when he beat Johnny Spinner with a nice shot after taking a pass from his captain, Puddy Murphy. Searchlight Club

At the monthly meeting of the Searchlight Club, held on a recent afternoon at 13 Ravine street, the president, Mrs. Charles A. Rideout, introduced Mrs. J. S. Bixler, wife of Professor Bixler, for many years connected with the American University of Beirut, at Beirut, Syria.

Mrs. Bixler, speaking on "The Jews and Arabs in Palestine," told in a very interesting manner the effect on the Arabs of the emigration of Jews to Palestine, a country in which the Arabs had lived for 1300 years.

She told of the adjustments that had to be made, and the culture the Jews brought into the country from the first years of their taking over the poor farms and making them fertile, up to the present time when so many thousands of educated Polish, German, and Jewish refugees—engineers, doctors, and teachers—have fled to Palestine because of the Hitler regime.

A lively question period followed.

The usual board meeting of the Searchlight Club was held recently at the Saimagundi Tea Room, Boston. Hostesses at luncheon, which preceded the business meeting, were Mrs. Charles A. Rideout and Mrs. George I. Savage.

It's the Early Bird that gets the Fun

The model illustrated is the BUICK SUPER model 51 four-door touring sedan $1109 delivered at Flint, Mich. White sidewall tires additional.*

ONE of these days the itch is going to hit you to get out and get in on the fun a Buick can be in the spring-time.

You're going to feel an irrepressible yen to touch off that husky, sweet-singing Dynaflex power plant and swing out in gentle coil-spring comfort to take in the fresh spring landscape.

Maybe, like others we know of, you've even got the model picked out, and are just "waiting a few weeks" to do something definite about it.

But may we emphasize, in purely friendly interest, that a lot of other people probably have the same idea.

And that when they start buying in droves—as they do every year about the ides of March—even Buick's big factory has trouble keeping up with them.

Of course, we're doing all we can to be ready for everyone.

But you can get only so many cars in a warehouse.

And a full warehouse can empty awfully fast.

And what with everybody wanting Buicks this season, we can't say how long we can promise the delivery we can give now.

So why not play the early bird this year? Why not get the jump on your neighbor and be driving your Buick while he's still talking about getting his?

You've nothing to lose, a lot of fun to gain—and you'll find the address of your Buick dealer in the phone book.

Not a six but an EIGHT for $895 and up delivered at Flint, Mich. *Transportation based on rail rates, rate and local taxes (vary), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

A SCOUT, according to Webster, is one who reconnoiters, watches, observes or follows—an apt description of the Boy Scout movement whose members reconnoiter life in their scouting activities. That this effort and fellowship is beneficial, no one can deny. It not only helps boys individually to develop more perfectly, but also has proved worthwhile in making communities everywhere better places in which to live. Scouting is deserving of everyone's continued support . . . parents, businessmen and civic bodies.

Calvary Church Hears Colorful Travel Talk

Percy A. Brigham of Robbin Hood road, thrilled a crowded auditorium of members and friends of the Calvary Methodist Church last Thursday evening as he illustrated with kodachrome colored movies the trip which he took last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham travelled over 10,000 miles last summer over the Canadian Northwest taking colored movies of that famous North American vacationland. Included in the pictures were scenes from town of Banff, nestled in the foothills of the Rockies, the famous ten peaks mountains, Moraine and Emerald Lakes, and lovely Lake Louise. One of the unusual events, Mr. Brigham photographed was the pageant of the Stony Mountain Indians. These Indians have staged an annual pageant each year for the last fifty years, and appear in their full Indian regalia. Their costumes of varied colors showed up particularly well in the movies.

Over a score of the guests Thursday evening had travelled over much the same territory, and a large number of the others expressed a desire to make the trip.

Mr. Brigham's technical skill as a photographer was particularly apparent in his sunrise reflection scenes and also in the picturing of the cascades.

The entertainment followed a turkey supper which was served by the ladies' aid, under the leadership of Mrs. Willis E. Munroe and her official staff.

Cappello-DiModica

At a ceremony performed in St. Agnes church on January 14, Miss Sadie Mary DiModica, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. DiModica of 44 Churchill avenue became the bride of Mario Joseph Cappello, son of Mrs. Anthony Cappello. Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret DiModica as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Ann Polito, of Arlington and Miss Rose, Volpe of Cambridge. Dr. Joseph Cappello of Arlington, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were John and Angelo DiModica, brothers of the bride. Following the ceremony, a reception took place at Hotel Touraine, Boston.

Friends of Drama Will Repeat "Night Must Fall"

"Night Must Fall," a shocking thriller by Emyln Williams, famous English dramatist, opened last night at the Friends of the Drama clubhouse on Academy street at Maple and will be repeated Friday and Saturday evenings.

Ray Wallace, Anna Pickering and Betty Goodwin are in the leading roles and are being admirably supported by Irene Allison, Warren Guild, Gladys Stevens, Bernadine Brooks and Parker Wood. The latter is also directing the play. The prologue is in the hands of Dr. David R. Kennedy, who is replacing John O. Matthews. Mr. Matthews was stricken with laryngitis last week.

The play has been handsomely staged by Barbara Llewellyn, who designed the set. Jessie N. Kennedy and her committee dressed the stage and collected the properties; Eleanor Mansfield painted the forest backdrop; the fine hand of Malcolm Stewart is seen in the lighting and sound effects; Lorraine Miller conceived and executed the intricate field-stone fireplace; Norman Downs and Edward Mansfield have done most of the work on the ends of saws, hammers and screw drivers.

In producing the play Mr. Wood has had the very necessary assistance of Beatrice Ring and Alice Wallace.

An Eagle Scout ranking is often considered the equivalent of two years of college training.
